

architectural competition

phase 1

goal: to select an architect for design of agricultural complex and hotel.

way: the competition will be divided into three phases, the first is open between February 15 and April 30 (application), the remaining dates are to be announced.

the first phase will be open to all architects enrolled in the professional association, companies or groups who pursue the profession in the European Union.

you may show interest in participating by filling out this form.

the candidates will be chosen by merely subjective parameters, without any classification, will be chosen 20% of the total number of candidates, with the minimum of 10.

preference will be given to candidates with experience in hotel an agricultural design, work in the area (Bragança district) and professional experience between 7 and 15 years.

all applicants who show interest will be contacted by the organization, and the list of selected published until May 30 at the website of teamkey4.

selection will be made by the project coordinator and two architects.

all applicants must authorize the publication of the names on the website and available for working during project schedule provided here.

any questions may be asked to candidaturas@tk4.eu.

the project coordination